Winkler Festival of the Arts

Welcome

Well..here we are again! Are we ready to share our music with the community? We are very excited to have a growing number of entries in both piano and vocal disciplines! In response, we have asked Loren Hiebert to adjudicate for one morning. We are very pleased that he is willing to do this for us. The beginners that will be performing for him will benefit from his expertise.

Madeline Hildebrand is new to the Winkler Festival but comes highly recommended. We look forward to her contribution to our community.

Judith Oatway is also new to the Winkler Festival. She will be adjudicating the vocal/ choral entries. Our vocal participation is very exciting to see this year, while the choral entries are at a minimal level. Please encourage your local schools to get involved!

We strive to offer an educational experience for students, adults and teachers. The opportunity of preparing something, whether musical or poetic, individual or in a group, and performing in front of peers and professionals, is a challenging and hopefully rewarding experience. It strengthens character and improves skills. We emphasize positive reinforcement through the adjudicators, while also giving entrants something to take home and work on. This balance provides the ultimate in education!

Thank you to my dedicated committee members, who work countless hours putting together this event for the City of Winkler and the surrounding area. You are appreciated beyond words! Thank you also to the many volunteers who give up a few hours each year to help out at the sessions. You are important to us and we couldn't do it without you!

We would ask anyone who is interested in this program, to consider joining us, to keep it alive and thriving! If this interests you, please be in contact with one of us at the festival this year, or through the website or Facebook.

We look forward to seeing many of you at the sessions this year. Check out our website at winklerfestivalofthearts.com. Contact us if you have questions, concerns, or comments about our organization. We'd also welcome new ideas and helping hands :)

Sincerely,
Dorothy Plett

Piano Sessions April 17, 2024 Adjudicator: Loren Hiebert

Loren Hiebert has been teaching piano in the Altona area since 1980. Over the years his studio has grown to as many as 75-80 students at times. He currently teaches in Altona, Gretna, Morden, Winkler, and Silverwinds Hutterite Colony.

In addition to teaching beginners through ARCT students, Loren has taught improvisation and keyboard harmony to many of his students. A particular highlight was receiving the RCM Teacher of Distinction award in 2018. Over the years, teaching piano brought opportunities to adjudicate many festivals in Manitoba, Saskatchewan, and Ontario, as well as provincial festivals and other competitions in Brandon and Winnipeg. In addition to teaching and adjudicating, Loren has been active as a performer, recording artist, and accompanist for many choirs and individuals.

Piano Sessions April 15-19, 2024 Adjudicator: Madeline Hildebrand

Acclaimed Canadian pianist Jon Kimura Parker describes Madeline Hildebrand as “an extraordinary young artist whose communicative skills convey the essence of all that she plays. Her pianism is of the highest level, and she has an instinctive understanding of beautiful sound.”

Madeline is a versatile pianist, quickly becoming a top-pick as a soloist and collaborator across Canada and the US. She has appeared recently in concert with Philip Glass (Winnipeg New Music Festival), the Kronos Quartet (Mass MoCA), with Yarn/Wire (DiMenna Center, New York), and as a soloist for Music Toronto’s COSE series. Of her recent performance of Joan Tower’s Petroushskates at the Bang on a Can LOUD Weekend, Tower states, “I was really impressed with how Madeline navigated that part with such ease and power at the same time...IT was one of the BEST performances of that piece I have heard.”

Whether cooperating with a singer or a sine wave, Madeline’s collaborative virtuosity leads much of her work. Her first prize win in the Women’s Musical Club’s McLellan Competition included a concerto debut with the Winnipeg Symphony Orchestra. She has appeared in chamber collaborations with many of Manitoba’s top musicians. An Eckhardt-Gramatté National Music Competition prize winner, her passion for creating unique musical experiences has led to numerous collaborations with living composers. She can be heard on T. Patrick Carrabré’s Western Canadian Music Award winning album 100,000 Lakes, and was spotlighted in Banff Centre’s 2022 Evolution: Classical series. She has been presented as a soloist and collaborator by the Winnipeg Symphony Orchestra Soundbytes Series, GroundSwell, Virtuosi Concerts, Cluster Festival, the Women's Musical Club of Winnipeg, Winnipeg's Millennium Centre's summer chamber concerts, Agassiz Chamber Music Festival, Augustfest, and the Brandon Chamber Players. She is a vigorous advocate for bringing classical music to rural communities and homes as evidenced by her solo tours with Home Routes, GroupMuse (NYC), and Living Room Live.

Madeline Hildebrand recently completed her Doctorate of Musical Arts in Piano Performance at Stony Brook University, NY, where she won the prestigious position as an IDEA (inclusivity, diversity, equity, accessibility) grad, crafting pathways through curriculums for new interdisciplinary degree programs, and devising service-learning projects for the music department. Her formative teachers include Gilbert Kalish, Christina Dahl, Jane Coop, and Judy Kehler Siebert. Her playing has taken her coast to coast in Canada and the USA, Italy, Romania and most recently to Armenia, Georgia upon the invitation of composer David Braid.

Madeline founded the Young Artists Program for Winnipeg's Virtuosi Concert Series, where she served on the board for seven years. As an educator, Madeline has held summer teaching posts in Port Milford, Ontario (Music at Port Milford). As an adjudicator and master class clinician, she has appeared at numerous festivals throughout Canada, and enjoys her present post as interim instructor at Brandon University, and Canadian Mennonite University.
